Though all letters of recommendation are carefully considered, we believe that letters written in confidence are of greater utility in the assessment of a student's qualifications, abilities and promise. Note that letters of recommendation are not considered part of a matriculated student's permanent record and, therefore, are not accessible nor subject to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.

I understand that letters of recommendation are not part of my permanent record and, therefore, are not accessible to me.

Applicant's Signature _____ Date _____

TO PERSON PROVIDING REFERENCE: The above-named applicant has applied for admission to the Bakke Graduate School of Business and is asking you to furnish a reference. Our aim is to train only those students of high character and integrity who are qualified spiritually, intellectually, and academically. It is essential that you be frank and accurate in your remarks and estimations. All comments will be kept strictly confidential. Thank you for your help.

How long have you known the applicant and in what capacity?

Does the applicant's speech and conduct consistently exhibit Christian beliefs? Yes No

Does the applicant have any doctrinal views, which are over-emphasized? Yes No

If yes, please comment

Several of BGU's key concerns involve how much we value cities, the community, and the "least, last and lost" in our world. Therefore, we would seek to know how the applicant is regarded by his/her friends, co-workers and how he/she interacts with the community.

Comment on the applicant's performance in or potential for effective leadership roles, including his/her level of self-confidence and specific strengths and weaknesses?

The program at BGU will require a significant commitment of time on the part of the participant. Do you believe this applicant will have sufficient time to devote to the program? Yes No

What degree of success do you predict for the applicant in his/her degree program?
 High Average Poor
